I, ROBERT W BEST, Secretary of State in and for the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the original on file in this office.

Abstract of the Act for Collecting Revenue.

There will be no valuation until 1867. The tax of the present year is on the valuation of 1860. In case of increase in value since 1860, by means of mines of metal, coal or other valuable thing being discovered or worked or by reason of new buildings being erected, or when lands or town lots have since 1860 decreased in value by reason of fire or other extraordinary causes, or by reason of failure of mines, there is to be a new valuation by the list taken and two freeholders. This new valuation is to be on the basis of valuation of real estate in 1860.

List takers appointed at first Court after January 1st. Should Court fail, three justices may appoint on or before April 1st. Notice to be served within ten days. Lists to be taken between the 2nd Monday in April and 1st Thursday in May. Lists refer to April 1st, to be returned to clerk on or before 4th Monday in May. Clerk to furnish Comptroller with abstract on or before 1st Monday in July.—Clerks to deliver duplicates to sheriffs on or before July 1st. Licenses and returns under schedule B. of the Revenue Act, to refer to July 1st.

Sheriffs to return list to Clerk of taxes collected under schedule B. on or before 2nd Monday in August. Clerk to send duplicates, thereof, to Comptroller, on or before 3rd Monday in August.

Clerk to make out list of taxes received by him and to report the same to Court next preceding 1st July and pay to Sheriff.

Sheriff to pay taxes into Treasury between 3rd June and 1st November of the present year.

By aid of the above summary, the County Courts may proceed with the appointment of list takers, and the list takers may perform their duty. With the above exceptions, the law is substantially the same as the law of 1858-'59, which may be used as a guide until the present acts can be printed and distributed.

In all cases where necessary, the chairman of the County Court may call a special term, giving ten days notice. When counties have failed to lay county taxes at the first term in this year, the next regular term, or a special term called as above, may lay the taxes.

All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.

We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufaced, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.

Messrs. B. H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:

We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

"We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,

PROSPECTUS OF THE COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly

Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to

Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00
Ten copies for one year,	33 00

☞ The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements, at moderate rates.

☞ Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.

☞ Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine. Address

To Subscribers.

We are sending the Sentinel to a number of our friends who have not paid us. The time of a number has expired, but, believing they desired its continuance, we have continued it.—We regret to say, that our expenses are so heavy for paper, &c., that we shall be compelled to discontinue the paper to all who do not pay up by the 1st. of April next. Notice the cross mark. This arrangement does not apply to our city subscribers whom we can see any day.

Office! Office!! Office!!!

The organ of the "straitest sect" declares its purpose to drive from office every "secessionist and latter day war" man in the State, and it charges those opposed to its course, with being clamorous for office.

Let us look at the facts: From the day of the surrender, to the present, no man in the State, that we can now call to mind, identified with the party known as the "secession party" before the war, has been clamorous for office, or has manifested any sensitiveness about office, except Gov. Holden. One would suppose, and we have no doubt the distant readers of the Standard do suppose, from its excessive clamor about office, that the civil offices in this State are filled with "accessionists and latter day" war men. Now we affirm, and we defy contradiction, that, at the present time, there is not a "secessionist" holding a prominent civil or political position in the State, nor has there been one since the surrender, except Gov. Holden. Gov. Holden is the father of "secession" in the State, and he was the leader and organ of the "secession party," and voted for Mr. Breckenridge for President in 1860. His Unionism began in the latter end of 1860, or the first part of 1861, but Mr. Lincoln's proclamation knocked it into a cocked hat in April of that year; and from that time up to the appearance of Gen. Sherman's army, we hear no more of the "glorious old Union" and "our old flag" in the Standard. Let those who doubt search the files of the Standard from 1860 to 1865. The little interval between November, 1860, and April, 1861, make up the Union record of the Standard, until April, 1865!

Again: There is not a judge in the State, who is, or ever was, a "secessionist"—nor can any of them be called latter day war men.—There is not a U. S. Senator, nor a member elected to Congress, who is, or ever was, a secessionist Gov. Graham, Mr. Pool, Mr. Stubbs, Mr. Clark, Mr. Fuller, Mr. Turner, Mr. Hanes, Col. Walkup, and, we believe, Mr. A. H. Jones, were all old Union Whigs, and none of them were latter-day war men. All of them, except Mr. Jones and Mr. Hanes, became Confederates and war men precisely at the same time Gov. Holden did, as a dernier resort for the South, but all of them deplored the necessity for abandoning the old Union.

Again: Gov. Worth is not and never was a secessionist. Always the friend of peace, he avoided all legislative responsibility involving the State in war, but served his State as a good citizen, when called to perform duties to his native State and people which he could conscientiously perform. The Secretary of State and the Public Treasurer were old Union Whigs and never were secessionists. The Comptroller, we believe, was a Union Democrat, though we think he voted for Mr. Breckinridge and Gov. Ellis.

In the Convention and Legislature there were gentlemen who had been "secessionists and war men," but they were chosen by the people of their several Counties, who had entire confidence in their honesty and their loyalty. Besides these, perhaps, there are magistrates who were "secessionists and war men" appointed, but they were recommended by those who had confidence in them.

We repeat, "former secessionists and blatant war men" have not been clamorous for office, have not pushed themselves forward. The people have asked their services and they have yielded, as true patriots and loyal men should do. Any of them who have been, or who are still, in office, if any, are less offensive as "secessionists" than the editor of the Standard. The Standard led, and some of them followed.

We defy the Standard to disprove what we have said. The offices of the State are not filled by "secessionists and latter-day war men." Those war men who are in office were not 'latter-day war men,' but became war men about the time that Gov. Holden became a war man; but the difference is they did not get whipped so soon, and are not supporters of Gov. Holden or his "strait-sect."

As to ourself, our Union record is far better than Gov. Holden's. We never were a secessionist—preferred Union to disunion and peace to war, but when our State took her position, we went with her, and still remain with her. No hope of office or reward prompted us to support Mr. Worth. We supported him, because we preferred him and his record better, for Civil Governor, than Gov. Holden. As to public printer, we did not speak to ten members of the Legislature on the subject. Our friends wished to have some one to vote for and we consented to the use of our name; and the Standard, which had had the public printing for many years, was a candidate for the same office! If it be a fat office, Gov. Holden has enjoyed it for many years, and has became so fond of it, he does not wish any one else to have it! But we beat him, and we think the Legislature did the right thing and the clever thing in giving it to us.

Revenue Law.

We surrender one half of our available space this morning to the publication of the Revenue Law passed by the late legislature. This fact will, of course, account for the lack of our usual variety. We are confident, however, that we could publish nothing of such general interest. Appended to the Act will be found a digest of the law "for the collection of the Revenue," carefully prepared by the Public Treasurer.

The reports from Washington indicate an anxious desire on the part of the more moderate of the Republicans to avoid a breach with the President. They think it unwise to quarrel with their bread and butter. Meanwhile, while the rupture is smothered, all the election triumphs, like that in New Hampshire, will be claimed for the Radicals. The Washington Chronicle is jubilant over New Hampshire, declaring that it repudiates the President, and that the Radical victory is complete.

It is reported from Washington that the Committee on Ways and Means are now busily engaged in considering the best mode of effecting a reduction in the rate of taxation, and ascertaining the articles which can best be relieved of the burthens hitherto imposed. The receipts from Internal Revenue have gone beyond the anticipations of the framers of the measure, and are considered more than necessary for the requirements of the Government. Mr. Welles, Chairman of the Tax Commission, estimates that at least $75,000,000 per annum can safely be taken off.

WE ARE glad to see that Gen. Grant has promulgated an order directing the Department Commanders of Virginia, North Carolina, and other States, to institute a quarantine of all vessels arriving from ports infected with cholera.

CONGRESS is about played out. Only three amendments to the Constitution were offered on Monday last.

GOLD closed in New York, on the 14th., at 130¼. Cotton was steady at 41 cents, at which figure there were sales of 2,500 bales.

A reply to the strictures of yesterday's Standard, upon the "loyalty" of the Editors of this paper, is crowded out by the pressure upon our columns to-day.

The New Radical Programme.

The New York World thus disposes of the plan to revolutionize the State Governments of the South, divulged by the Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune. Let the aiders and abettors of the plot in North Carolina read and beware! We invite the special attention of the Standard to the extract:

"In the first place, the South, with the acquiescence and at the desire of the Radicals, is still under martial law; the President being the Commander-in-chief to enforce it. That is to say, the whole South is, in one sense, a camp, wherein nothing can be done which the President may not suppress by martial law. An insurrection against the State governments which he has recognized, and a conspiracy to overthrow them, would justify his interference by martial law, if he did not deem other methods preferable.

But the President is averse to military methods, and, in this case, there would be no necessity of resorting to them. Such an attempt as the Radicals have embarked in can readily be crushed by constitutional methods without recourse to martial law. It is a conspiracy to destroy the existing State governments, which would be put down as the DORR rebellion was in Rhode Island. In this case, as in that, the insurgents would be proclaimed traitors by the State government, which would maintain its authority by its courts and its militia. The majority of the people in every Southern State would be on the side of the State government, which would be able to sustain itself by its superiority in physical force. But if the insurgent negroes and outcast whites should prove formidable, the existing State governments would appeal to the President for aid, which he would be bound to render, by the laws of 1795 and 1807, still in force. By the law of 1795, "in case of an insurrection in any State against the government thereof, it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, on application of the Legislature of such State, or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened), to call forth such number of the militia of any other State or States as may be applied for, as he may judge sufficient to suppress such insurrection." The law of 1807 provides that "in all cases of insurrection, or obstruction of the laws, either of the United States, or of any individual State or Territory, where it is lawful for the President of the United States to call forth the militia for the purpose of suppressing such insurrection, or of causing the laws to be duly executed, it shall be lawful for him to employ, for the same purposes, such part of the land and naval force of the United States as shall be judged necessary."

These laws, which clothe the President with such ample powers, continue in force, and cannot be repealed, any more than a new law could be enacted, without the assent of the President. The probability is, that the Southern State governments will be strong enough to cope with the projected conspiracies without Federal assistance. If it should prove otherwise, they have only to apply to the President, who has full legal authority to use the whole military power of the United States to uphold and protect the existing State governments.

This last insane project of the Radicals is the desperate expedient of men who have lost their heads. It has no chance of success; and the signal overthrow it is certain to encounter will only add disgrace to the defeat of which it is a confession."

The Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in South Carolina has issued an order, announcing that the negroes settled on the sea island plantations by General Sherman will not be ousted.

The Republican Conservatives and the Fanatics—Compromise with the President—The Disunionists to be Thrown Overboard—The Plunder at Stake, &c.

WASHINGTON, March 14.

It is evident that the republican members, as distinguished from the radical faction in Congress, are becoming more and more averse to a rupture with the President. They are disposed to strike out some new line of action, whereby they will avoid collision with the President, retain the offices, and afford time for the consideration by the people of the policy proposed by the President in regard to restoration. Some of the members propose that Congress should close the session after admitting Tennessee and Arkansas, in deference to the President's wishes and opinions. They make this concession to him, and he, in turn, is not to use the power of Executive patronage against them as a party—that is to say, not against the republican party proper. This scheme leaves the radicals out in the cold. The Executive axe will be free to fall upon them wherever they may be found in office.

This plan involves a separation of the radical fanatics from the Union republicans. The small democratic element of the present Congress will not favor this arrangement, for it would destroy their hopes of an immediate rupture and collision. But there is a majority in both Houses of members who may come into his arrangement, and it is not certain that the President will not approve of it; for he has positively assured a leading conservative Senator that he will not make any removals at present. Besides this, it is understood by some influential republican members of the House that the President is not disposed to enter upon any course of proscription. This is understood in Pennsylvania, where, as democratic politicians inform me, the democracy are heart and soul with Johnson in his fight against the radicals, and all they require is that the President should remove any office holder under him who fails to sustain him against the Stevens and Sumner revolutionists. IOTA.

Republican Caucus on Representation.

WASHINGTON, March 13.

According to previous notice, a caucus of the republican Senators took place at the capitol this morning. Of the conservatives present were Messrs. Doolittle, Stewart, and Lane, of Kansas. The object of the caucus was to determine upon some constitutional amendment in reference to the basis of representation that would meet the views of all. A desire for conciliation and harmony was manifested, and it was resolved to refer all the pending propositions to the Union Senators of the committee of 15, with instructions to report as speedily as possible.

The Standard congratulates its friends in North Carolina that Congress is with them. All we have to say is, that they have got into bad company.—Pet. Index.

Now I don't pretend to say that I am selling goods at New York prices. I say no such thing. I do in no such humbuggery. But I say I have sold goods as cheap, I expect to sell as cheap, and I say I will sell as cheap as any Yankee, Jew or Gentile, who has paid for his goods, or ever expects to pay for them, cost houses not excepted. To prove what I say, and what I mean, I respectfully ask my friends and customers to call and examine my stock at the old R. Smith Building, corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Saturday, March 17, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENS.—Benj. W. Brown, Administrator, offers valuable lands for sale in Pitt county. If not sooner disposed of, they will be disposed of at public vendue on the 8th of May.

Pescud and Williams & Haywood announce themselves as agents for the sale of that valuable remedy, Deems' Hepatic Pills.

R. H. Battle, Sr., announces himself as Agent for the Metropolitan Fire Insurance Co., of New York. Office in Bank of Cape Fear.

The Secretary of State makes official publication of the Act to regulate the terms of the Supreme Court, &c.

The Standard announces the discontinuance of its daily publication. That paper will hereafter be published Tri-Weekly and Weekly,—the former at $6 and the latter at $3 per annum.

SWINDLERS.—Two men hailing from Wilmington swindled the proprietors of the Bollingbrook Hotel out of several days board, a few nights since. Their bill had been presented, but was not paid, and during the night one of them threw from his window, in the fourth story, to his comrade in the street their carpet bags, and both escaped scot-free.

A magnificent new Locomotive engine, called the Wm. A. Wright, has been placed upon the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road.

JUDGE OSBORNE.—The Charlotte Times says that this distinguished gentleman has returned to the practice of law in that "City." The Times justly says that the Judge is one of the first lawyers in the State.

GARROTING IN WILMINGTON.—Captain W. H. James was garroted in Wilmington on Sunday night. Robberies, highways and other ways, are becoming frequent in that city.

Mr. Isaac P. Lee, of Gates county, N. C., was killed a few days ago by being caught under a tree he was felling.

GENERAL NEWS.

President Johnson was visited on Monday, according to the New York Herald, by a friend who has just returned from Europe, and who assured him that his policy and official conduct is well understood and heartily approved by intelligent Europeans who desire the welfare of our country. The President expressed his gratification at receiving the information, and alluded to the obstacles which Congress is throwing in the way of his policy of reconstruction.—The members, he said, have now been in session for three months without accomplishing anything practical in the way of restoring the South, and, while continuing to oppose the Executive plan, they fail to bring forward one of their own.

The ladies of Charlottesville are taking steps to establish a home for the children of deceased and disabled Confederate soldiers.

BOSTON, March 14.—Jared Sparks, the historian and Ex-President of Harvard College, died at his residence, in Cambridge, this forenoon, of pneumonia.

A daily line of steamers now plies between Hampton and Norfolk and Portsmouth, via Old Point. There is a tri-weekly line between Norfolk and Newbern via the Albemarle and Chesapeake canal, which makes the trip in twenty-four hours.

There are some half a dozen Senators elected from the Southern States still in Washington. They do not expect to get anything encouraging from either House of Congress. They have been told by the Radicals that under no circumstances will they be allowed to take their seats so long as they can control a majority of Congress. They have notified them that they expect to carry the next House, and, if they are successful, they need not expect to get in for at least ten years.

General Beauregard is out in a letter to the New Orleans Picayune, urging the Louisiana Legislature to do something at once to deepen and widen the passes of the Mississippi.

Secretary Seward is said to have assured the English Minister that the Fenians will not be permitted to commit any overt act, and that the Government will issue a proclamation in case of any violation of law.

THE MISSOURI TEST OATH.—Rev. James Huges, a clergyman of Clinton county, Mo., is under arrest for preaching without taking the oath. Two Baptist ministers in Ray county are undergoing prosecution for a similar offence.

General Gorgas, late Confederate States chief of ordnance, Hon. Francis S. Lyon, and others, have purchased the late site of the Bibb county, Ala., Iron Works.

At the freedmen's fair in Portland, they are exhibiting Gen. Neal Dow's shirt, the only one he had to wear while in Libby Prison. It is said to be well darned.

Another attempt at revolution has been made in the interior of Hayti, and a plot to assassinate President Geffrard has been discovered.

Tenements are easier to be obtained in New York than they were a few weeks ago, and rents have a downward tendency.

THE NEGRO'S CONDITION—WORSE THAN EVER!—Wendell Phillips, the great Abolition agitator, disunionist and accessionist, in a speech at the anniversary meeting of the Boston Anti-Slavery Society, on Friday, January 26, made use of the following language:

"Practically, the negro is now in a worse condition than in 1860."

By order of Major General Stoneman, the District of East Tennessee has been discontinued.

The State Department at Washington has received a despatch from the Island of Santorini, in the Grecian Archipelago, dated February 15, giving some interesting particulars in relation to a submarine volcano at that place, by which it is feared that the Island may be sunk, as the sea was greatly agitated and portions of the land had already given way.

Secretary McCulloch has directed the agents of the Treasury Department at the South, to notify all persons who subscribed to the Confederate cotton loan, that the Government considers all such cotton liable to seizure and confiscation.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established
Ætna Company, of Hartford,
Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.
All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assets of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, also the pledges of want and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8,819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15, 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683 339 57; total disbursements $527 805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155 244 33.
In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

MANUFACTURERS AND PROPRIETORS,
Store No. 20 South Delaware Avenue,
PHILADELPHIA.

THIS valuable Manure has been before the agricultural public, under one name for twelve years past, and its character for vigor of action and permanence in effect is well established. Before the war, it was introduced, to some extent, in the Southern States, and was found to be highly adapted to Cotton, Tobacco, and all Crops.
In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

PROSPECTUS
OLD NORTH STATE.
"The Old North State Forever."

THE undersigned will commence the publication of a Daily and Weekly News-paper, bearing the above title, in the city of Salisbury about the 10th of March next.
The Old North State will be, under our control, a firm and decided Union paper. But while it will be firm and decided in its support of the Union, and of all just and necessary measures tending to its complete restoration, it will yet be liberal and conservative. It will oppose radicalism from whatever quarter it may come. Confiding in the loyal intentions of the great body of the people of North Carolina, it will endeavor to soothe the asperities of the past by promoting among them a spirit of reconciliation and harmony.
Rejecting the exploded dogma of paramount State sovereignty, it will cheerfully support the National government in the exercise of every power necessary to the maintenance of its rightful authority, while it will ever contend against any encroachments upon the reserved rights of the States.
It will discuss all the various political issues of the day, but in doing this it will seek to avoid everything like partizan bitterness or personal vituperation. It will also strive to avoid that detestable practice, so common among politicians, of pandering to the passions and appealing to the prejudices of the multitude in order to accomplish partizan ends. It will endeavor to enlighten and direct aright public sentiment, by disseminating correct information, and by arguments addressed to the understanding—in short, it will endeavor to erect a high standard of political morality.
Its columns will be open for Political, Moral, Literary and Agricultural articles especially, and to the advertising public.
The Old North State will be printed on new type on the following

THE LOYALIST.

THE undersigned propose to publish in Louisburg, North Carolina, a newspaper under the above denomination. The LOYALIST, as its name imports, will yield a firm, uniform, and fearless support to the Constitution of the United States, and all laws enacted in pursuance of that great instrument. To the decisions of the Supreme Court of the nation, in such questions as originate in the interpretation or application of the principles involved in our federal jurisprudence or policy, the Loyalist will accord its unqualified acquiescence, as to the will of the American people, duly expressed through the only legitimate, determinate and sufficient medium. Its general politics will be those so long and so thoroughly taught by the patriotism, the eloquence, and the wisdom of Clay, and his departed compeers, and so fearfully vindicated by the present melancholy and helpless condition of the communities so recently arrayed in arms against the integrity and harmony of our national union.
The Loyalist would make the institutions and independence the material and moral dignity of the nation, as enduring and as brilliant as the stars whose images adorn the field and the folds of its flag. The Loyalist will also dedicate its energies and exert its abilities to ascertain and cherish the interests, as well as to develope the immense resources of North Carolina. To the cause of education, the general diffusion of knowledge, the elevation of the masses, and the religious culture of all within its influence, it will be a consistent and inflexible friend. Its editorial department will be conducted by gentlemen whose names will be announced in due time.
The LOYALIST will be issued weekly, carefully printed, of the size of the Raleigh "Daily Sentinel," and furnished to patrons at $3.00 per annum, payable on delivery of the first number. Subscriptions and communications respectfully solicited.
